Love is the Key

The Power of You with Symbols

By Anne Jones – www.annejones.org

Since I started healing 16 years ago, I have been given a over thirty ancient symbols to assist in healing aspects of people and situations. They act as spiritual semaphore – sending a direct message of intent directly to the Masters and Guardians of the symbols. They initiate and invoke the universal and cosmic energies needed to enable, disperse or magnify any energetic situation that needs healing i.e. bringing back to its perfect form of love.

The symbols have all been tested and tried and many have been in constant use throughout the ages, some have been hidden and are only now available for our use.

They are not secret and can be openly shared – I have no copyright on them!

They are powerful and they invoke powerful energies but these energies are monitored for both you, as the channel, and the receiver to ensure there is no chance of overload.

Use them with love and care and enjoy the results!
